Market Updates

Economic Review

CPI eased marginally in November 2025, with CPI registering 6.1% YoY versus 6.2% YoY in October. On a monthly basis, CPI rose 0.4%, reflecting a notable slowdown from the 1.8% MoM increase recorded last month. Core inflation also moderated to 6.6% YoY from 7.5% YoY in October. Supported by the broadly stable inflation environment, the 6-month KIBOR edged down to 11.16% at end-November from 11.19% a month earlier.

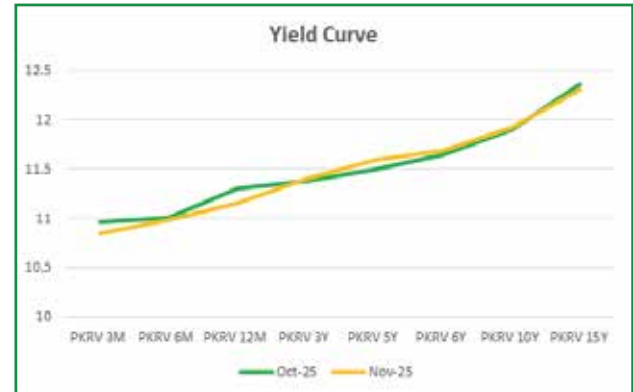

The external sector remained under pressure as the trade deficit widened by 37% during the first four months of FY26, reaching USD 15.47 billion compared to USD 11.28 billion in the same period last year. However, on a monthly comparison, the November 2025 deficit declined 11.86% to USD 2.86 billion versus USD 3.24 billion in October, though it remained 32.79% higher relative to November 2024.

Large-Scale Manufacturing expanded by 4.08% in IQFY26, driven by a strong performance in September, which posted growth of 2.05% MoM and 2.69% YoY. The textile sector remained a key contributor, adding 1.88% to overall growth with an 18.16% weight in the index, followed by the food sector, which grew 6.94% with a 10.69% weight. Other notable sectors included automobiles (+84.58%), non-metallic minerals (+13.85%), coke and petroleum (+3.35%), and wearing apparel (+2.43%).

According to SBP data, foreign exchange reserves increased 2.41% MoM to USD 19.59 billion by end-November, compared to USD 19.13 billion in the prior month. In contrast, the current account deficit widened sharply by 255% YoY during the first four months of FY26, reaching USD 733 million versus USD 206 million in the same period last year.

Fixed Income Review

The yield curve for November 2025 shows a marginal softening at the short end compared to October, while medium- to long-term yields remain slightly higher. Overall, both curves maintain an upward slope, indicating stable long-term rate expectations.

The SBP conducted two T-bill auctions in November 2025, targeting PKR 1,200 billion and raising PKR 1,242.39 billion. In the final auction of the month, cutoff yields were 10.89%, 11.00%, 11.00%, and 11.27% for the 1-, 3-, 6-, and 12-month tenors, respectively.

In its monthly PIB auction, the SBP mobilized PKR 792.65 billion against a target of PKR 400 billion, reflecting strong investor participation. Cutoff yields stood at 11.48% for 2-year, 11.49% for 3-year, 11.64% for 5-year, 12.00% for 10-year, and 12.25% for 15-year maturities.

Equity Market Review

The Pakistan equity market delivered a steady performance in November 2025, with the KSE-100 Index rising 3.1% MoM to close at 166,678 points. Both average traded value and volumes declined sharply—down 34% and 43% respectively as investors remained cautious amid mixed domestic and geopolitical developments. Foreign investors were net sellers of USD 41.34 million during the month, while local institutions, particularly banks and individual investors, absorbed much of the selling pressure.

Market sentiment during the month was influenced by a combination of policy developments and geopolitical events. Investor confidence was underpinned by expectations of IMF Executive Board approval for the second EFF review on December 8. Conversely, the passage of the 27th Constitutional Amendment, while positive from a long-term institutional reform perspective, introduced near-term uncertainty. Security risks also heightened following attacks attributed to Indian-backed Afghan militants, prompting a temporary ceasefire between Pakistan and Afghanistan. Nevertheless, the continued closure of the Pak-Afghan border weighed on bilateral trade flows, particularly affecting cement, sugar, food items and aluminum exports.

Macroeconomic conditions remained mixed. Inflation stood at 6.1% year-on-year in November, slightly higher than expected due to higher food prices. Despite these pressures, the Pakistani rupee remained broadly stable supported by SBP reserves.

Sector-wise performance in November was varied. Food, OMCs, E&Ps, power and insurance sectors outperformed the market, benefitting from stronger earnings flows, improving collections and policy clarity. On the other hand, banks, pharmaceuticals, autos and engineering underperformed amid margin pressures, regulatory challenges and weak demand in certain segments. Large-scale manufacturing indicators showed encouraging signs.

Overall, the equity market remained resilient despite macroeconomic and geopolitical headwinds. Stable reserves, moderating inflation, improving industrial data and progress on circular debt reforms contributed to a constructive medium-term outlook. However, near-term performance is likely to remain sensitive to geopolitical developments, the pace of domestic reforms, and the timely completion of IMF program reviews.
